One Mile High

Comfy, colourful and perfectly located in Denver's oldest neighbourhood, this little home offers easy access to a plethora of cultural attractions like the Museum of Contemporary Art and Millennium Bridge, and a host of hip bars, trendy boutiques and high-end restaurants. Whether you're in town on business or enjoying a city break, a stay at this studio apartment will have you feeling at home. The open concept design makes full use of the space, offering a high-spec kitchen to dish up big breakfasts before days out and about. If you're staying in for the day, head to the building's co-working space, get creative in the makers space or swim lengths in the communal pool. Bookend any day with a trip to the sundeck, offering skyline views of the city, plenty of seating and a firepit, it's ideal for a couple of sundown drinks.
