Jungle Greens

This lovely home is a real delight. It was recently renovated, and has been beautifully decorated – you can tell how much love has gone into this home. Hues of green and jade run throughout the decor, resulting in a soothing vibe. When you're on holiday, you want to be able to relax in style, and that's just what you can do here. The stunning monochrome kitchen is a great place to begin your day, whether you're simply preparing coffee or whipping up a feast. Everything you might need has been considered here, so cooking is a pleasure rather than a chore. When everyone is seated around the dining table, you'll see why this home is so popular with families and groups of friends – there's plenty of room for everyone to gather together. If the sun is shining, you'll want to be outside. Lie out on a sun lounger to top up your Vitamin D, or dive right into the heated swimming pool. The south-facing terrace is a wonderful spot, looking out over the lush gardens – we'd be tempted to fire up the barbecue for a dinner under the stars. You're close to the coast so the seafood is great – the scallops from the Bay of Saint-Brieuc in particular are divine.
