Starburst Blue

This apartment's excellent location in Denver's LoDo neighbourhood means you're right on the doorstep of all the action. Business travellers and tourists alike will love the walkable position of this home – there are plenty of great restaurants, and cute boutiques in the area, plus attractions like Union Station and the Museum of Contemporary Art Denver just a short walk away. Inside the apartment, the space is peppered with colourful art and bright accents, which come together with mid-century furnishings to create a modern vibe. Stock up on fresh finds at the nearby farmer's market and whip up a storm in your fully equipped kitchen, or pop to one of the many eateries across the street. Whatever you choose to do, the communal pool and fire pit invite you to round off the day with a spot of rest and relaxation before heading home to make use of the fluffy towels and sink into the plush linens.
